OSTRACISM.

One of the most unfortunate features of modern colored society is the cus'om of ostracising all who do not conform in every respect to certain established social dogma. It is true that the general requirements necessary to obtain a passport into our best sociand grounded in reason. It is necessary to possess moral and in tellectual worth, together with a disposition to assist in developing the material interests of the community in which we live. And not unfrequently-and at times for good reasons-it is necessary there were grand lectures deliverto establish a title dating back to ed to the colored people of Mt. our residences in other places. In presenting our compliments to the readers of the BEE we wish to draw their attention to the fact that we started here one year ago with the avowed purpose of selling fine clothing for men and boys at popular prices. A great many of you have already honored us with your patrorage, but to those who have not, we would say, if you fail to examine our Superb Stock of fall clothing for men and boys before purchasing elsewhere, you will miss an opportunity rarely presented to you of obtaining the finest and most elegantly gotten up clothing ever exhibited in Washington at prices usually charged elsewhere tor goods of very inferior qualities.

Our foreman Tailor T. K. Rich. ardson will personally attend to any alterations that may be neccessary, that in itself is a guarantee that it will be well done.
